

VETERAN RESOURCE DAY—TRUCKEE, CA

Congressman McClintock’s office will assemble Veterans’ advocacy groups and community resources to provide Veterans with the information they need to access the benefits they deserve. Representatives from Nevada and Placer County Veterans Service Offices will be there to provide information on filing claims with the Veterans Benefits Administration.

Additionally, McClintock’s office is gathering service providers, American Legion and VFW representatives, and community program sponsors that help active duty military, wounded warriors, and military families. If you are with a Veterans advocacy group or related organization interested in providing services or resources, please contact Joel Scott at the office of Congressman Tom McClintock.

“I believe the only way we can adequately thank our veterans is for each of us to highly resolve that we will not rest until we have restored that American Spirit that once produced the strongest, most prosperous and most respected Republic in the history of the world.”

- Congressman Tom McClintock, Veterans Day Commemoration, November 13, 2012
