Consensus: Unobtainability of Insight Reports

The insights reports, as provided, are not easy to read and can contain columns of data that are not relevant to local sites. This makes the processing/use of Insight reports less efficient. Solutions: Creation of Excel macros to help get the reports in a more usable format.

- The macros can remove unwanted columns or rows to ensure that only needed data is included.
- A macro can be used to create calculated columns (for example, the amount of time needed to review requested changes and potential IRBNet). The macros can be customized and revised if there is something you would like included in a macro to make the Insight reports more useful, let us know what you need.

- Usability of Insight Reports

Overview:

With the use of the MACRO tool, data can be cleaned from Insight Reports, removing some of the data such as “Library” and “Total”. This will allow for a more user-friendly program. The approach to this change is to review requested changes and potential answers your original questions, and if not, figure out what they are, why they are there, and what they mean. We will then roll out the required changes.

Procedures:

- We are forming a focus group to discuss the potential of developing an enterprise Insight Report. If you are interested in participating, send an email including your full name.

Upcoming SharePoint Reorg
