this training is for you!

The Central IRB has published the “104 Local Site Investigator Application” in their website, if you apply to be an active study project shell will be transferred to the PI/LSI’s account.

In addition to the online survey, we have also received feedback in the form of focus groups and surveys. These focus groups are being conducted in order to improve the user experience for all users.

Regarding IRBNet support is available at VAIRRS@va.gov.

If you are interested in participating in the focus group, send an email to Shay Bickley.

We are forming a focus group to discuss the potential of developing an enterprise resource repository. If you are interested, please email Shay.Bickley@va.gov.

If you would like to learn more about other resources, we suggest you login to the VHA RESEARCH website.
