VA researchers studied the impact of video telehealth tablets for Veterans facing barriers to accessing care. 4 in 5 recipients used their tablets during the evaluation period. Increases were reported in:

- Continuity of care
- Psychotherapy encounters
- Medication management visits

Follow the link below to see more findings: