

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

Veterans Health Administration
Office of Research & Development

AGENDA

Central Texas Veterans Health Care System – Temple, TX

Located in the Conference Rooms of Building 205 on the Temple Campus

Monday, May 15th

11:30 to 1:30 Research Poster Day – Research Posters will be displayed for everyone’s review throughout the week however this is dedicated time to review and discuss with colleagues.

Tuesday, May 16th

12:00 to 12:15 My Perspectives of Research at the VA: DeLIVERing the Data by Ms. Laura Hargrove, B.S. Biology, University of Mary Hardin-Baylor; M.S. Medical Sciences, Texas A&M Health Science Center.

12:15 to 12:30 Graduate Research at the VA: Insights and Experiences by Ms. Lindsey Kennedy, B.S. Cellular and Molecular Biology University of Texas in Austin; graduate student working on Ph.D., Medical Sciences from Texas A&M Health Science Center.

12:30-1:30 The Face of Nursing Research by Marjory Williams, Ph.D., Nursing Research Investigator.

Wednesday, May 17th

12:00 to 12:15 Opening Remarks by Leadership, Central Texas Veterans Health Care System.

12:15 to 12:30 Research Program - Charles J. Foulks, M.D., Associate Chief of Staff/Research.

12:30 to 1:30 Aberrant bile acid signaling in the brain contributes to the neurological complications of liver failure by Sharon DeMorrow, Ph.D., Associate Professor Texas A&M University.

Thursday, May 18th

12:00-12:30 Conducting Compliant Research in the VA by Jose Pena, M.S. Research Compliance Officer.

12:30 to 1:30 Role of Technology in the Prevention of HAI by Chetan Jinadatha, M.D., CTVHCS Chief of Infectious Disease.